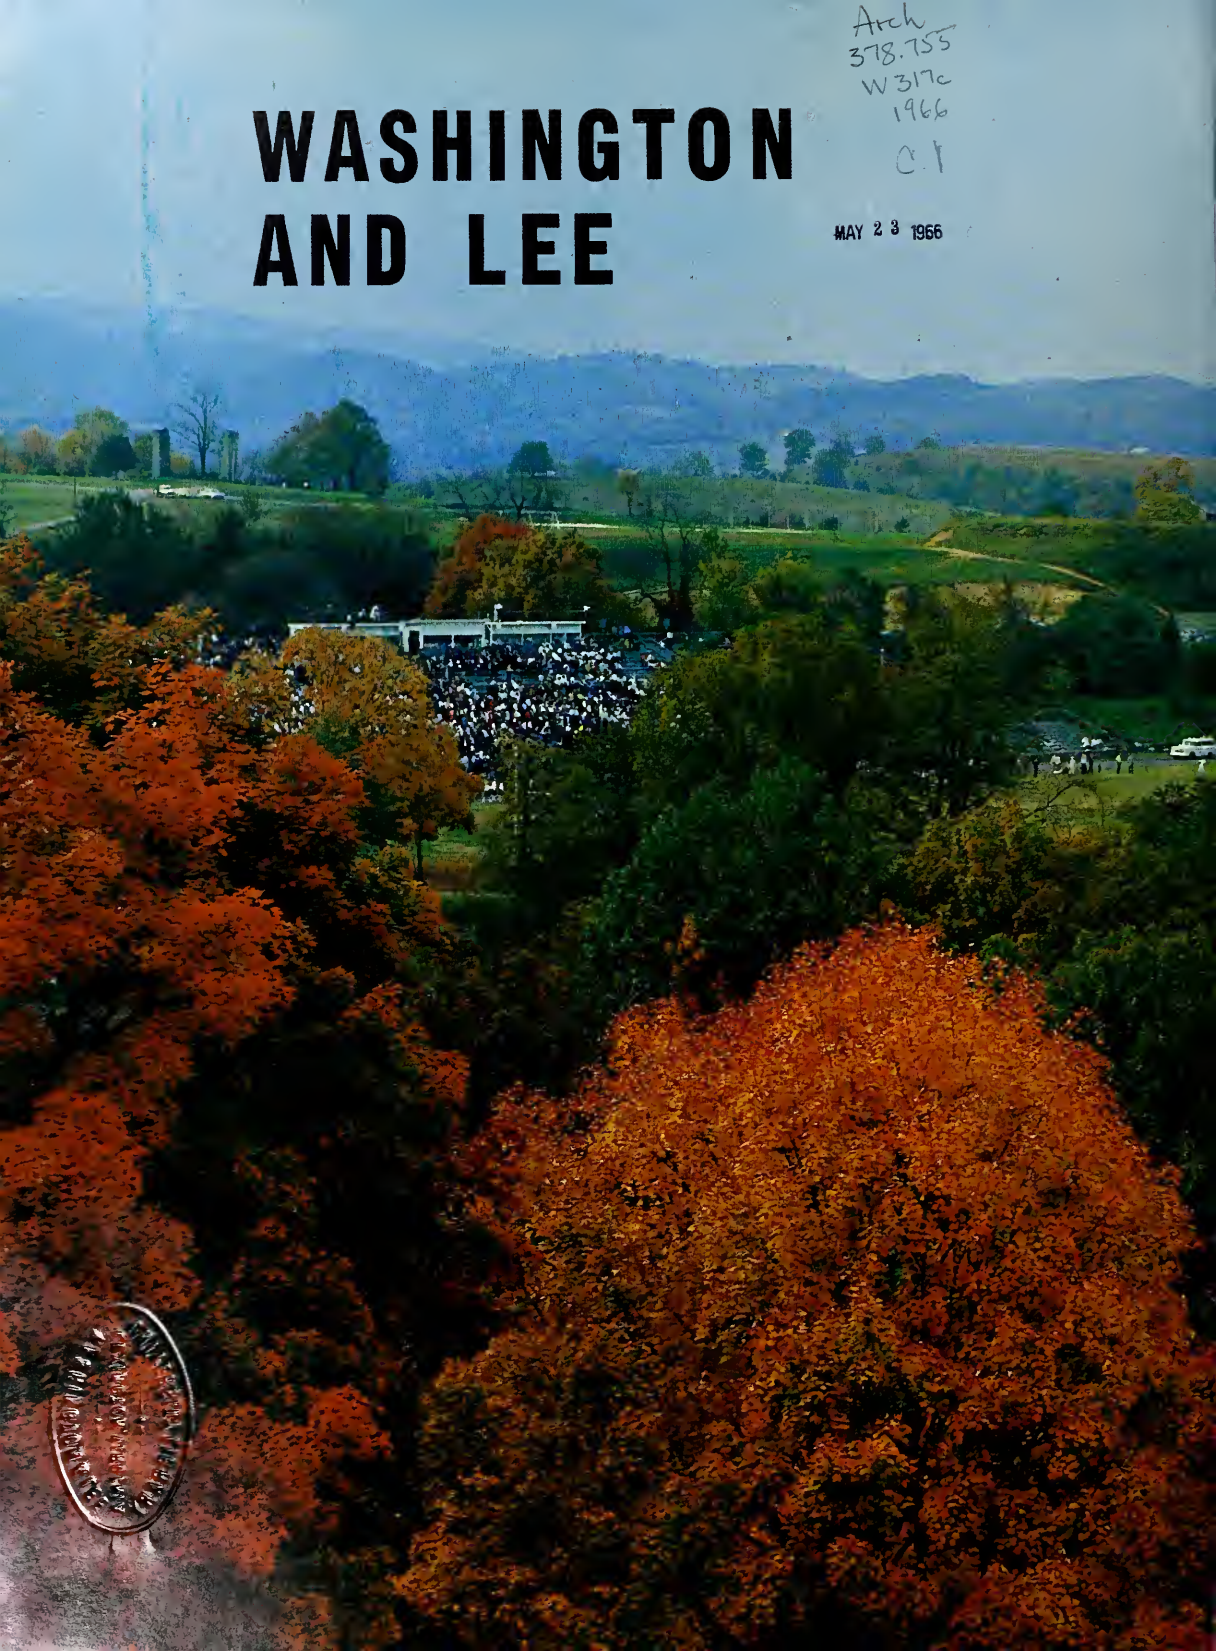
WASHINGTON AND LEE

MAY 23 1966



Washington and Lee is currently involved in a period of re-evaluation and re-direction. All areas of the University are being submitted to critical inspection, and this last year has seen many significant changes from past custom. The Calyx has tried to capture a part of this new atmosphere both in its format and content, however the difficulty of such a task lies in the fact that there are as many views on W&L as there are members of the academic community. The experiences and events pictured in this book will recall something different to each individual for each had his own part in making this year distinctive from those of the past. But it has been the hope and purpose of the staff that each of us, both now and many years hence, will be able to find at least a part of his definition of Washington and Lee and the year 1966.

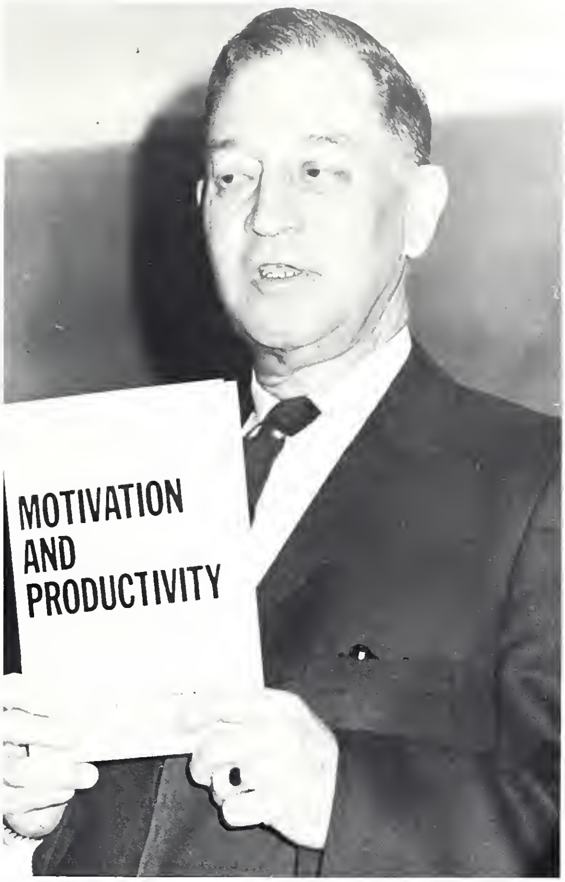
DEDICATION



If one word can typify the career of the man presented on these pages, it is dedication.

Dedication to teaching. He is an educator who has maintained a constant involvement in all innovations and developments pertinent to his fields. His course presentation is dynamic and absorbing; and he imbues his students with both a comprehension and a continuing interest in all aspects of the subject.

Dedication to students. He is regarded as a counselor, advisor, and ready friend. His interest in the personal advancement of each student is not limited to the confines of the classroom, but encompasses the student's total collegiate experience and endures throughout his future career.

Dedication to Washington and Lee. His loyalty to the University is unwavering, in the tradition of so many before him. For over thirty years he has served the University as an ardent supporter and constructive critic. His influence has been meaningful in many areas and will long continue to benefit Washington and Lee.

In recognition and admiration of this quality, the 1966 Calyx is dedicated to LEWIS KERR JOHNSON.

Organizations at Washington and Lee play an important role in the development of the well-rounded individual which is the end product of the true liberal arts education. While the atmosphere at W&L has at times been characterized as seemingly apathetic, the opportunities for extra-curricular activity through which the student may improve himself and increase the University experience are many. Whether the individual's interest lies in student government, publications, music, or academic or social pursuits, he can find an organization in which his own ideas and talents will be in demand. And to the student willing to devote the necessary time and effort come both the satisfaction of a job well-done and the tangible rewards of recognition and advancement.

A Diversity of Outlets

Polls and Reforms

FRED MINDEL
President

The Executive Committee possesses extensive authority in the legislative, executive, and judicial aspects of student life. Our single most important function is the administration of the Honor System, where our responsibility is a dual one: to insure that our code of living remains based on justice and impartiality and to safeguard its preservation in the years to come.

The E.C.'s responsibility in legislative and executive functions is also a dual one: to represent student opinion and also exercise personal judgment in its decisions. This responsibility, I believe, must be based upon a principle of "active representation" whereby student opinion is sought out and utilized in a decision-making process which results in action that is progressive and not merely a mouthpiece of the status quo.

This is necessary because the nature of education, as well as our times in general, are changing; W & L's responsibility becomes one of reaping the best from our rich tradition while at the same time progressing to meet the new demands and opportunities of the future. So far, I believe, W & L has placed a disproportionate emphasis on the former, with the result that there are a number of liberalizing improvements which not only can be made on this fine institution, but must be made if we are to actualize our potential and remain one of the country's leading universities. Certain of these modifications are being neglected by trustees, administration, and faculty alike, and thus the need for student-initiated action is indeed great.

Mark Executive Committee's Year

The operation of the Executive Committee this year has reflected the promise of action that was included in election platforms last spring. Progress has already been made in many areas and additional advances are expected during the second semester.

In a move that would hopefully improve the spirit of conventional dress and other traditions, the fining power of the Assimilation Committee was removed. During the first semester this system was followed, but with the present semester will come an intensive and extensive review of the committee and its operations which seem far from optimal.

With a view that some class offices were meaningless all were removed with the exception of the presidents and vice-presidents. A new election system, marked by unlimited nominations and a primary election, was instituted for the Freshman Class officers. A similar system based upon elections uncontrolled by political parties or cliques will be utilized for the Big Four and spring class elections.

The ODK Leadership Forum has been completely reorganized to include representatives from all campus organizations, faculty and administration. The effectiveness of the Forum will be measured through an upcoming debate of the question of Washington and Lee's membership in the National Student Association. It is hoped that the Leadership Forum will provide a vehicle through which all students will be able to express their opinions on issues of current student interest.

With the hope of progressive action this spring, sub-committees are currently investigating the following areas: student feeling about the existence of Saturday classes, an examination schedule to allow the student more flexibility in taking exams, a grading system which recognizes the difference between a plus and a minus, and the establishment of a student committee to provide evaluation of courses and professors. Also under consideration is the possibility of the complete separation of the Law School and the college.

PETER KINTZ
Chairman

STUDENT CONTROL COMMITTEE

The Student Control Committee is an organization, comprised of seven students, which handles matters pertaining to social discipline on campus, in the town of Lexington, and elsewhere. Under the able leadership of Peter Kintz, a member of the committee for three years, the Student Control Committee has as its aim keeping Washington and Lee's reputation for being a school of gentlemen unmarried. The members include a chairman, a representative from the law school and two representatives-at-large. Each is chosen after careful screening by the Executive Committee and must have unwavering devotion to the rules of the school and must hold in high regard the concept of gentleman-like conduct.

COLD CHECK COMMITTEE

After being selected by the Executive Committee last Spring, the Cold Check Committee began its job of maintaining good relations between the student body and the town merchants by ruling over infractions involving bad checks passed by any member of the student body.

At its weekly meetings, the Committee dealt less harshly with violators than in years before. The Committee set up a new policy allowing a student to accumulate as many as three offenses in two years without being given the maximum fine.

ASSIMILATION COMMITTEE

After Executive Committee action late last spring, the Assimilation Committee, the organization charged with maintaining W & L's important traditions, operated under a different system than in past years. The fining power of the Committee was waived in favor of a more lenient method of persuading violators to conform to traditions. The new proposal set the Assimilation Committee up as a "guiding light," with the function of talking to and convincing violators. Persistent individual violators, however, were referred to the Executive Committee.

STUDENT LIBRARY COMMITTEE

The main responsibility of the Student Library Committee is to administer the various rules of the Library regarding the use of the books and to guarantee that all students have equal access to them. The Committee considers the cases of various violators and fines them accordingly, and also fines flagrant disturbers of the quiet which is maintained in McCormick Library and the various departmental branches.

This year the Committee has tried to increase the utility of the library by keeping the main library open during the dinner hours so students may use the books and periodicals in the stacks continuously from morning to the midnight closing hour. At the beginning of the second semester this year, the Committee operated a used book exchange which though not as successful as had been hoped for, was definitely a step in improving the conditions of text book purchasing on campus.

Board of Governors Organizes Research Program

CHARLES HUBBARD
President

Under the leadership of President Charles Hubbaru, the Board of Governors continued a successful program of social and academic betterment in the Law School. The organization's main purpose is to conduct Student Bar Association business between regular meetings. In addition the Board of Governors holds annual Fall and Spring Dances. Also highlighting this year's activities were the organization of a Student Legal Research Program, and direction of the Student Government by-laws.

Cooperating in the yearly mock trials, the Board of Governors secured for the first time the participation of real judges in the trials. The organization has had a year notable for several lasting contributions to the students and activities of the Washington and Lee Law School.

The Publications Board acts as the publisher for the Ring-tum Phi, CALYX, and Southern Collegian. The editors of those publications are held responsible for their actions by the Publications Board. Other functions of the Board are the approval of budgets for the three publications and responsibility of choosing new editors and business managers for these publications.

The year 1965-1966 was an important one for the Publication Board. For the first time in many years, all three campus publications showed a profit. This year the Board reaffirmed the fact that all editors are responsible to the Board for their publications. and that any formal protest against a publication must be reviewed by the Board. The Board also dealt with the question of whether or not the Collegian should continue to be supported by the school.

Calyx Presents New Look

Work on the 1966 Calyx began last Spring in an effort to make the 1966 yearbook one of the best in Washington and Lee's history. As soon as the Publications Board selected Jack Baber and Bill Washburn as the 1966 Editor and Business Manager they went to work picking a staff and planning the format.

The rest of the staff swung into action in September taking pictures, securing ads, adjusting layouts, and sweating deadlines.

The staff attempted to make the 1966 Calyx more informal and more original than yearbooks of past years. Pictures of organization presidents were taken in relaxed positions, rather than dull, posed shots. More effort was expended on writing interesting copy. Headlines were instituted in the organizations and sports sections, simulating a magazine format.

Special effort was put into the sports section to obtain better action shots. The classes editors made a valiant attempt to get the apathetic Law School students to have their pictures taken. Fraternity copy was written and rejected several times in the seeking of new and clever ideas.

It was a year of a "new look" for the Calyx. Baber and his staff made a special attempt to publish a yearbook which would present Washington and Lee as the fine university that it is.

The Ring-tum Phi, official campus newspaper, is published every Tuesday and Friday during the college year. Printed at the Journalism Laboratory Press in Reid Hall, it is under the supervision of the student-controlled Publications Board. The Tuesday and Friday editors-in-chief are elected by the Publications Board in the spring, after applications are received and interviews held.

Mike Hash edited the Tuesday edition, while Billy Cannon ran the Friday edition. It was the second year in the new Reid Hall quarters, which were renovated during 1964. Competition between the two editions did not reach last year's volitile proportions, but there was a healthy rivalry. The Friday staff accused the Tuesday staff of styling itself as a bush league New York Times, and the Tuesday staff countered by charging the Friday staff with imitating the Richmond News Leader. Both charges were generally conceded to be accurate.

Editorial policy ranged from active embroilment in the Self-Study Program to a rebuttal of a swipe at the Ring-tum Phi which appeared in a Washington Sunday magazine.

Collegian Remains Most Popular Publication

Buck Woodford, Business Manager; Jim Crothers, Editor.

The "South's Most Maligned Magazine" continued to receive the same compliments and complaints this year as it has gotten since its creation way back in the 1880's.

"Does not belong on this campus," rages the administration, while the students (and after all, it's written for them, isn't it?) claim "best ever" and "funny as h - - -." Because of the attacks on the Collegian by the "Hill," there was a definite drive in articles of the magazine to make the students aware of this; however, editor Jim Crothers, tried not to allow the contents to get any drier or the jokes any cleaner.

Striving for a more professional-looking product, the staff featured themselves in such pictoral essays as the "Navel Contest," the takeover of W&L by the staff, and the cover of the Openings Issue urging everyone to "Start Off the Year With a Bang." These and the girlie features all came from the able hands of the photographers Ken Caro, Roy Tyler, and John Lawrence.

Scott Miller, the creator of the Hairy Collegian Doll and the "Gotcha Game," and Peter Kintz, of "Dump Jobs Are Forever" fame, were the more studious cartoonists on the Collegian. Denny Neidringhaus, Pete Heumann, Brad Rochester, and ex-editor Drew Baur wrote, drank, and thought about filth for the Southern Collegian.

As the staff searched for someone to print the Springs and Finals Issues of W&L's literary masterpiece, there were rumblings about the campus threatening the abolition of the Collegian. In the name of free speech, good times, and good old tradition, let us hope the Southern Collegian will survive.

The Washington and Lee Law Review is published in the Spring and Fall by its Board of Editors, prospective members of which must have a "B" average. The Review contains lead articles written by specialists in the field and case comments written by student contributors. This year a Book Review section has been added as a regular feature.

The Board of Editors is composed of: Rudolph Bumgardner, III, Editor; Baxter L. Davis, Research Editor; Raymond H. Vizethann, Jr., Articles Editor; Henry Angel and Jerome Turner, Comments Editors; and Emmitt F. Yeary, Book Review and Managing Editor.

The contributors to The Law Review are: Charles Glidden Johnson, Robert E. Payne, Ronald W. Sommer, James C. Treadway, Jr., Ronald J. Bacigal, James F. Douthat, Jon A. Kerr, Lewis B. McNease, Jr., Peter W. Martone, Ronald W. Moore, and Louis C. Roberts, III.

The Advisory Council helps the Dance Set Presidents with decorations in the gymnasium, delivers information to the students, and distributes publicity material throughout the fraternities and the campus.

Dress costumes. The Dance Board entertainment polls were administered and totalled by members of the Advisory Council. These polls play a great part in determining what entertainment will appear on campus the following year. At various times throughout the year Council representatives recommended popular entertainment to the Dance Board. Council members also assisted the Dance Board in the selling of Dance Plans. Serving on the Advisory Council gives valuable experience to those students wishing to serve on the Dance Board in the future.

Beginning the fall semester the Dance Board brought the Coasters, Little Milton, Martha and the Vandellas, the Ronettes, and the Majors to W&L for a memorable Openings weekend. Headed by Jim Crothers and vice-president Tom Cox, the Dance Board made several innovations designed to continue an already notable record of securing fine entertainment. New sound equipment was purchased, an outdoor concert was held for the first time, and Dance Plan sales reached an all-time high.

Openings was followed by Fancy Dress, which had a "Derby Day" theme. Over 500 couples danced to the music of Stan Rubin's Orchestra in Evans Dining Hall for what many oldtimers called the "biggest and best Fancy Dress Ball yet." Despite Virginia's biggest snowstorm Ian and Sylvia struggled to Saturday's concert a little late, but gave a superb performance.

Chuck Jackson, the Marvelettes, Major Lance, and Wilson Pickett were all slated to appear at Springs, with Finals scheduled to feature folk music.

SWMSFC Starts Third Scholarship

BIRNIE HARPER
Chairman

A gift of $1500.00 to the University started off the year auspiciously for the Student War Memorial Scholarship Fund Committee. The donation provided a start for a third scholarship in the Committee's name. The committee was set up to raise money for scholarships in honor of those Washington and Lee men who were killed in World War Two.

Various projects are used to raise this money. Thomas Ltd., The College Town Shop, Alvin-Dennis, and the Traditional Shop at Pres Brown's each donated articles of clothing this year for the annual raffle which netted $160.00.

SWMSFC is given a commission by the L. G. Balfour Company in return for assisting in the sales of class rings. After the first of three scheduled sales this year, class rings sales had reached a new high. A program of offering class rings to graduates of previous years will also begin this year.

Coca-cola concessions at University dances and concerts and the operation of the coat check at the Fancy Dress Ball are an additional source of revenue.

In addition to these projects, SWMSFC also handles the ordering and distribution of graduation invitations and announcements, along with caps and gowns.

Organized as an aid to the University's public relations program, the Student Service Society has offered its support to the University in a number of areas. The major duty of the Society members is to conduct personal tours of the campus to prospective students and other visitors. It is through these personal tours that a visiting student has an opportunity to see and hear about the campus from the student viewpoint. And on several occasions this personal interest, and insight into the University, has influenced the visitor to choose Washington and Lee for his college education.

The society also assists the University in guiding and directing visitors during special weekends throughout the year such as Parents Weekend, Alumni Weekend, and S.I.P.A. weekend in addition to its regular tours.

This year, in recognition of the assistance which the Society gives to the University, the University has helped to finance the purchase of distinctive lapel pins which members wear during their tours and other occasions.

Counselors Aid Freshman Adjustment

Billy Andrews, Head Counselor, boots freshman violator out.

A large part of a new Washington and Lee freshman's orientation to college life consists of adjustment to dormitory living. He is often confronted with a totally new environment, which requires of him many new and demanding adaptations. The freshman dormitory counselors are devoted to aiding the new student in making this adjustment. These older students, all of whom have distinguished themselves in scholastic and extracurricular activities, are appointed on the basis of their outstanding leadership and counseling abilities. Each counselor has responsibility for one dormitory section. He lives with the freshmen and conducts regular meetings of the students in his section. The duties of a dorm counselor are many, and may include the quelling of freshman "riots," regulating the noise level during study hours, and personally consulting with freshmen over various problems. Together they work to more completely orient the new W & L student into all the complicated aspects of University life.

Washington and Lee's Debate Club could well put out a poster reading, "Join the Debate Team and See the World." This year's schedule included 18 trips to such places as Dartmouth, New York, Philadelphia, Annapolis, Chapel Hill, and Boston.

The sophomores, who won eight trophies as freshmen, again led the team to many victories. But they didn't do it all. Another crop of promising freshmen back up the talented sophomores in making Washington and Lee's Debate Club one of the best in the country.

This year, the team took first place at the Wake Forest Dixie Classic, Roanoke College, and Randolph Macon College. In addition, the team achieved a winning record at St. Joseph's College, Ohio State University, New York University and Annapolis.

This year Dean Emeritus Frank J. Gilliam initiated a trophy to be presented annually to the outstanding debator. The trophy has been named the Noell-Eckes Trophy in honor of Bill Noell and Al Eckes, two W&L graduates who were instrumental in establishing the high quality and reputation of debate at Washington and Lee. Co-recepients this year were Billy Cannon and David Marchese.

Under Professor Chaffin's leadership, the team seems to be one of the fastest growing organizations on campus. The youthful talent making up this year's team, makes a promise of several successful teams in the future.

And We Will Roll Old Sweetbriar On The Sod"

Chuck Griffin, President and Pete Hendricks, Business Manager.

The Sazeracs, headed by President Chuck Griffin and Business Manager Pete Hendricks, harmonized their way through another successful year. This social singing fraternity is named after a drink served in the bar of the Hotel Roosevelt in New Orleans.

The Sazerac Cocktail was born in the French Quarter of New Orleans. More than a century ago, the popular gathering place of the city's sophisticates was the Sazerac Bar on Royal Street. It was frequented by plantation owners, merchants, sea captains, politicians, bankers, and adventurers. These gentlemen were all connoisseurs of good drinks, and they recognized that the Sazerac's popular French bartender had achieved a brilliant triumph in one of the mixed drinks he served. This unique drink quickly became known as the Sazerac Cocktail.

Now days, connoisseurs of good music recognize that W & L's Sazeracs have achieved a brilliant triumph in songs. In the past, the group has performed at private parties for the Prince and Princess of Austria, for Zsa Zsa Gabor, Dina Merrill, and Princess Lee Radizwill, and appeared in the Celebrity Room in Palm Beach to entertain at a reception for the American Ballet Company.

This year, the Sazeracs again sang at formal dinners, full concerts, cocktail parties, and surrounding girls' schools. They entertained at business conventions at Natural Bridge and filled their annual week's engagement at the Taboo Club, in Palm Beach, Florida.

Completing one of the most active and successful seasons it has ever seen, the W&L Glee Club sang its way through a long series of engagements both on campus and away. Expertly directed by Professor Stewart, and led by President Wicky Stuart, the club opened the year with the traditional Parents' Weekend Concert in Doremus Gymnasium. At Christmas they participated in the Candlelight Service at Lee Chapel, and sang in joint concerts with the Randolph-Macon Woman's College Chorus on both campuses.

Highlighting the second semester's activities were two singing tours. The first, to the Washington area, included appearances at Holton Arms and Mount Vernon, followed by a concert in Martinsburg for the benefit of the Heart Fund.

The Glee Club then journeyed to Atlanta where they sang at several engagements. This year their repertoire included a wide selection of all types of music, ranging from classical to folk and spiritual and from Broadway numbers to religious. It is this versatility of material, as well as the Glee Club's distinctive style of performance which has led to its great popularity among audiences of all types.

Cultural Performances Brought By Concert Guild

JEFF WILLIAMS
President

Mr. Robert Stewart was at the reigns of the Concert Guild again this year, and the Guild brought forth one of the most successful programs of serious music that Washington and Lee has ever seen.

Every year, the Concert Guild is responsible for bringing relatively little-recognized artists in the serious music field. These artists are brought on campus for two main reasons. First, is the fact that the performing artists provide W&L students and citizens of Lexington with cultural music. At the same time that this is done, the performances help promising, but as yet unfulfilled careers.

This year was no exception as far as audiences and fine performances were concerned. Lee Chapel was the scene of six separate concerts. These performances included pianist Stephen Manes, the Iowa String Quartet, and Violinist Charles Castleman.

The Washington and Lee Brass Choir had a long and successful series of concerts this year. They opened the year playing on the Rockbridge County Court House lawn for the Rockbridge County Art Show. In late October, the Brass Choir performed with the Glee Club in their annual concert for parents on Parents' Weekend.

Just before Christmas vacation, the Brass Choir performed in a Christmas program along with W&L's and Randolph-Macon Women's College's glee clubs. The site of the concert was Lee Chapel. The freshmen were also able to enjoy the Brass Choir during the Common's Christmas supper.

With the Glee Club, again, the Brass Choir made its annual spring tour. Only this year there were two tours. Their first one included performances at Mt. Vernon Junior College and Holton Arms School, both in Washington, D.C., and at Gettysburg College. They also stopped at Martinsburg, West Virginia, to help raise funds for the Easter Seal campaign. The second tour took them through the deep south. They played in such cities as Atlanta, Georgia, and Charlotte, N.C.

The successful season ended on April 28, when they performed their final campus concert of the year.

U.C.A. Finishes Ninety-Ninth Year Stronger Than Ever

CHUCK LONG
President

Bill Blair was in charge of the Program at the Boy's Home in Covington, Va. Each week he and a group from W&L visited the Boy's Home and they instructed the boys in athletic skills and other planned activities.

Another program of great interest on the W&L campus is the Intercollegiate Forum, which the U.C.A. sponsors between W&L and the women's colleges: Sweetbriar, Randolph-Macon, and Hollins. These programs were under the leadership of Tom Ware, Jim Bruton and John Moore. The groups met either here in Lexington or at the girls' schools, and they discussed topics of current interest in the fields of philosophy, history, and art.

The University Christian Association is an organization that has developed out of the "Young Men's Christian Association," which was established at Washington and Lee in 1867 under the guidance and influence of Robert E. Lee. Today it is an organization open to all Protestants, Catholics, Jews, or other members of any faith represented on the W&L campus. It is an organization through which students can, by way of discussion and action, better help themselves and others to come to grips with the problems of real life.

The U.C.A. has been capably led by President Chuck Long this year. The Mountain Mission Program, under the leadership of Wicky Stuart operated this fall to set up student ministers and Sunday school teachers for mountain Churches which would have been closed without the association's help.

Joe Miller served as President of the Washington and Lee Varsity Club this year, leading the club in its two fold endeavor. to further athletics at Washington and Lee and to provide a social organization of athletes.

Membership in the W&L Varsity Club is not easily obtained. To become a member. an athlete must have earned a minimum of two letters in a varsity sport and be presently active in that sport.

This year the club continued the practice of presenting a torch-light parade and pep rally on the eve of Homecoming. In addition, the Varsity Club sponsored a cheerleading squad from Southern Seminary for all home football and basketball games. Each year, the Club makes a donation to some varsity sport which it feels is most in need of support. It also selects the outstanding freshman athlete for the year.

Through its furthering of the spirit of Washington and Lee athletics, the Varsity Club makes a significant contribution to the University.

Circle K Serves Community

ROB VAUGHAN
President

Circle K is an upperclassman's service organization under the auspices of the Kiwanis International. Membership is considered honorary and is based on satisfactory scholastic achievement and evidence of leadership in the school and community. It is unique in that it is not a closed society dominated by self-centered interest groups and determined by outside forces such as other organizations on campus. Circle K is first and last a service organization dedicated to bringing all school organizations into closer cooperation with each other and with the community. Its motto is "We Build"; while developing leadership for tomorrow, it creates a better community for today. The club does not bend its every effort to a master international plan. but bases its activities on the needs of its own campus and town. It offers the opportunity for service through unselfish devotion to others.

During the past year the Circle K has contributed substantially to the Heart Fund Campaign, the United Fund, the Rockbridge Christmas Basket fund drive, and the World University Service. Through cooperation with the UCA, the club has taken over the charity drive dropped by the IFC. Its major contribution has been in the form of time and effort though funds raised have been quite significant.

Circle K is new at Washington and Lee, less than two years old. It has, however, already contributed to the campus and community. its main objective. and in doing so has created a sense of responsibility in its members. An organization of its types has a definite place and future at W&L.

"13" Club Taps Thirteen

JACK BABER
President

Ranking alongside Phi Beta Kappa and Omicron Delta Kappa, the "13" Club is designed to train its men in the ability to distinguish between the worthwhile and the wasteful objectives of college life. Thirteen members of the Junior class are chosen each year for membership. Among the characteristics which new members must possess are those of self-denial, cultural refinement, extreme composure, and intellectual curiosity. Perhaps it is because of its over particular interpretation of these, of what is worthwhile and wasteful, the "13" Club is very much misunderstood throughout the University. Nevertheless, the Club somehow survives to spread its message of Bacchanalian delight.

Minks Misunderstood

The Mongolian Minks is an esoteric organization with a history traceable to Alexander of Mesopotamia. After the demise of Alexander, the group moved to an unknown location in Germany until the Wars of the Roses, when the Minks emerged in full strength on the British Isles, only to be forced into hiding once more by the leaders of the Puritan Revolt. Finally, after long and arduous travels, this group found worthy and permanent asylum on the campus of Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Virginia, the Shrine of the South.

The activities of the Minks, which are so enigmatic as to border on the inscrutable, have often been misunderstood, and it is for this reason that this organization has been seen in the wrong light. For public purposes, the function of the Mongolian Minks is to live life in a manner which will paradoxically merge the Dyonisian and Byzantine Heritage of the group, in order that each individual may be most worthy to work for the general betterment of mankind.

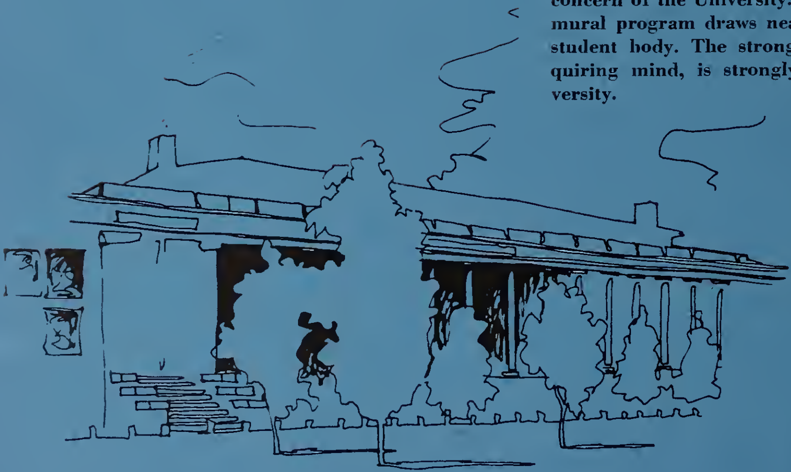
sports at W&L

The purpose of a liberal education is to mold that nebulous figure called the whole man. The Washington and Lee athletic program is designed to aid this end.

[redacted]

Since 1954, the University has followed a de-emphasized athletic program. But the de-emphasis has only eliminated athletic grants-in-aid, not the competitive spirit. The University fields teams in thirteen varsity sports. Team members participate solely because of interest in, and enjoyment of, the game. The won-lost record, while impressive, is not the sole measure of success. Rather, the traits of sportsmanship and teamwork are the true goals of the program.

Intercollegiate athletics, however, are not the only concern of the University. A highly diversified intramural program draws nearly eighty per cent of the student body. The strong body, as well as the inquiring mind, is strongly encouraged by the University.



The University Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics is composed of five members of the Faculty chosen by the Board of Trustees, two alumni members chosen by the Alumni Association, and two student members chosen by the Executive Committee of the Student Body.

The Committee exercises the following specific functions: to assist the Administration in the selection of a director of athletics and athletics coaches; to approve the scheduling of all contests; to prepare and submit for the approval of the Board of Trustees a budget for the operation of intercollegiate athletics; and to consider and pass on the applications of students to represent the University in all branches of sport.

Tri-captains Andrews, Novinger and Miller confer with Coach McLaughlin.

With many veterans returning, Washington and Lee's football team embarked upon the 1965 campaign with high hopes and favorable predictions. The optimism was to no avail, however, as the Generals had to fight hard to salvage a 3-6 record. This was W&L's second straight losing season, and it was one of the most frustrating and disappointing in recent years.

Injuries dogged the team at every turn. Many key players were lost for crucial games, and many were forced into action at less than full strength. This was especially significant in tight games; the Generals outscored their opponents 129-128 but lost the close ones. The defensive performance was generally excellent. The offensive, relying more and more on passing, was occasionally brilliant but usually sporadic.

Individual standouts were several and noteworthy. Senior fullback John Anthony broke the W&L seasonal rushing mark by amassing 915 yards in 197 carries over nine games for a 4.6 yard average. Anthony was named honorable mention Little All-American. End Tersh Baker and linebacker Jeff Novinger also merited A-A honors. Anthony, Baker, linebacker Joe Miller, and tackle Jack Kelley, all seniors, were named first team All-State. Novinger, tackle Starke Sydnor, and sophomore quarterback Andy Bloom received honorable mention.

The opening game was a defensive clash with Randolph Macon. The Yellow Jackets scored with 3:53 left in the game to win 7-0. The defense was led by Charlie Myers, Logie Bullitt, and Mike Goode. A 22-yard TD run by Buddy Atkins in the first half was nullified by a penalty.

Against Hampden-Sydney the Blue suffered a defensive lapse in the second quarter, gave up two touchdowns, and were again shutout, 14-0. Novinger, Sydnor, and Miller were the defensive leaders.

Anthony Sets Rushing Mark

One of Kendrick's three interceptions against Southwestern.

Getting on the scoreboard for the first time, the Generals took an early 7-0 lead in their CAC opener with Centre. Anthony made the score on an eight-yard run and gained 129 yards for the game. Centre struck back twice to win 12-7, handing W&L its third straight setback.

For homecoming Washington & Lee drew a formidable foe in Guilford's Quakers. Scoring at will, Guilford rolled up a 20-0 lead. Andy Bloom hit Rob Reading with a TD pass before the half ended to make it 20-6.

In the second half the Generals looked like a new team, controlling the ball superbly. Early in the fourth quarter Bloom returned to action and tossed a fourth down aerial to Atkins for a touchdown. The defense held again, and, after a 25-yard Bloom to Baker pass, Bryant Kendrick snuck over for another score. John Bogart bulled over for the two-point conversion, and the score was 20-20 with 1:40 to play.

Washington and Lee kicked off onsides, and Bogart made the crucial recovery. A 49-yard march was capped by Bloom's third TD toss, again to Reading, and W&L won its first game by a 26-20 score.

This was by far the General's best effort of the year, just as the upset of Sewanee was last year's best.

The Generals scored the first time they got the ball against Western Maryland. Anthony's five-yard plunge climaxed the 51-yard drive. The score remained 7-0 till the fourth quarter, when the Green Terrors struck through the air for a touchdown and, with 1:46 remaining, kicked a field goal to sink W&L, 9-7.

At Bridgewater, Washington & Lee realized its offensive potential by thrashing the Eagles, 41-13. Anthony and Bill McDavid ran for TD's, Bloom hit Reading and Baker for two more, and Bob Barclay and Jamie Andrew chalked up touchdowns on pass interceptions. Skip Jacobsen's 42-yard field goal rounded out the productive afternoon.

Traveling to Sewanee, the Generals slugged it out toe-to-toe with the Tigers, only to bow 6-0. Sewanee tallied on a 60-yard march following the opening kickoff, then held off W&L's thrusts to hand the Blue their second CAC loss.

Washington and Lee bounced back strong to whip Southwestern, 26-13, and gain their first conference win. John Anthony was the big difference, rolling up 173 yards and three TD's. Baker's grab of a toss from Bloom accounted for the other score. The defensive secondary was superb in throttling the vaunted Southwestern passing game.

Washington University had too much offensive punch in the season's finale, and the Bears rolled over W&L, 34-22. The Generals rallied gamely from a 20-0 deficit, but time was against them. Bloom found Baker and Tom Pittman with TD aerials, giving him eight for the season, and Anthony scored his seventh.

Boosters Win Seven

Coach Lyles and captains Tim Henry and Dave Redmond surround the game ball.

Boasting three first team All-State players and three second team members in its starting lineup, the 1965 soccer team upheld the reputation of the 1964 NCAA college runnerups. Cocaptains Tim Henry and Dave Redmond, as well as Dave Kirkpatrick received first team honors. Bob Larus, Fred Skinner and Brad Shinkle were on the second team as the booters posted a 7-3-2 record and placed third in the State Tournament.

The generals defeated Belmont Abbey, Randolph-Macon, Davis and Elkins, American University, Eastern Mennonite and the University of Virginia in regular season play. While losses came to Lynchburg, VPI and Pfeiffer, the latter two by single goals. The team had a scoreless tie with Roanoke during the regular campaign.

For the second consecutive year, W&L saw its state title hopes crushed by a tie game. The Generals and Randolph-Macon battled through the regulation contest and two five-minute overtime periods before the Yellow Jackets were declared winners by a margin of one corner kick. The Generals defeated VPI, 2-1, to take third place.

In addition to its All-State players, the squad, coached by Joe Lyles, depended upon Richard Burrows, Wes Horner, Scott Fechnay, Ward Briggs, Allen Craig, Ed Hutchins and Claude Rogers for its winning performance.

Henry led the booters in scoring with nine goals, while Shinkle contributed five and Kirkpatrick three. Nine Generals broke into the scoring column: the team outscored its opposition 25 goals to 15. Skinner and Shinkle will lead the 1966 returnees as cocaptains.

Harriers Lose Only One

Paced by record-setter Lee Johnson, the 1965 cross country team posted an impressive 5-1 mark. The sole loss of the season was to Old Dominion; victories came over Richmond, Lynchburg. Catholic University, Roanoke and High Point. A second place finish in the CAC meet capped the season.

Cocaptains Johnson and Riff O'Connor provided the leadership for the Generals. Providing the depth were Bill Lowry, George Parker, Bob Stack, Bill Wildrick and freshman Ralph Pearcy. Johnson toured the home course in 23 minutes and 40 seconds against Catholic, trimming 30 seconds off the old mark for a W&L runner.

With Lowry and Wildrick returning as cocaptains, Coach Miller's 1966 edition should enjoy another winning season.

Marksmen Gain Experience

With only one returning senior, the Washington and Lee rifle team faced tough going most of the 1965-66 campaign. The Generals dropped all seven of their regular season matches but progressed steadily and made a creditable showing in the NRA Intercollegiate Sectional match, held at Fort Lee at the end of the season. The Washington and Lee varsity finished seventh in the fourteen-team field and gained a measure of revenge by topping Richmond and William and Mary, both of whom had defeated the Generals twice earlier in the year.

Bob Lackey (268.3) and Nevin Anderson (268.0) had the high averages for the season. Ron Kessler (266.0) and Crawford Williams (263.0) were the top freshmen. The squad averaged 274.2 at the Intersectional, with Lackey's 280 the highest score of the year.

Anderson and Lackey, both sophomores, have been chosen to lead the marksmen next season as co-captains, and Sgt. Taylor, having completed his first year as rifle coach, can anticipate a greater share of victories in the future.

Swimmers Rewrite Records

Outstanding CAC Swimmer Billy Ball churns to individual medley record.

Described by Coach Norris Eastman as the finest team he has had in eight years of coaching, the 1965-66 Generals rewrote the school swimming record book and compiled an impressive 8-3 mark in dual meet competition. With the exception of the 100- and 200-yard breastroke, every Washington and Lee short course standard was bettered.

The team defeated West Virginia, Wake Forest, Randolph-Macon, Lynchburg, Loyola, Old Dominion, Gettysburg, and Roanoke. Losses came to American University, East Carolina, and Catholic, a 50-40 squeaker lost in the final event. Completing the season was the first annual CAC meet, held at the VMI pool. Washington and Lee finished a close second (178-148) to powerful Sewanee, with freshman Billy Ball providing the individual heroics. Ball set W&L and pool records in winning the 100-yard backstroke and the 400-yard individual medley, set another school record in the 200-yard individual medley, and swam in the winning 400-yard medley relay, which set another school mark. This performance earned Ball the Outstanding Swimmer trophy. Bill Wildrick also set two school records, and Nelson Head added another pool record. Wildrick, Ball, and Pat Costello were the top scorers throughout the season, with Head, George Bokinsky, Bart Taylor, Bill Clay, and Ned Lawrence close behind.

Wildrick and Taylor will return next season as co-captains to lead a team which loses only three graduating seniors and could progress to even greater heights.

Roundballers Best Since Flora

Washington and Lee's basketball program took giant strides forward this year as the young Generals posted a 10-15 mark, quite an improvement over the previous season's record of 2-17. Not since the 1956-57, in the era of the almost legendary All-American Dom Flora, had a W&L basketball squad managed to garner ten victories.

This was the second year for coach Verne Canfield, and the early effects of his rebuilding efforts were readily apparent. Two freshmen and a sophomore cracked the starting lineup, and a third freshman saw considerable action as the number two center. What appeared to be a porous defense after the first two games was shored up admirably and became a team strongpoint. Floor mistakes were sometimes a problem and the shooting was occasionally inadequate, but whenever these shortcomings appeared they were usually compensated for by increased desire and effort. Rebounding was surprisingly effective; the Generals amassed 230 more rebounds over the season than did the opposition.

The starting quint had sophomore Jody Kline (8.7 points per game) and freshman John Carrere (9.4) at guards, senior Captain Bob Spessard (9.5) at center, freshman Rob Bauer (15.5) at one forward, and senior Steve Sweitzer (8.7) and junior Frank Morrison (12.6) alternating at the other forward post. wards (5.3) played in every game at pivot.

Morrison paced the team in marksmanship with 46.0% accuracy from the floor. Kline (44.3), Edwards (43.4), Sweitzer (42.8), Spessard (39.7), and Bauer (39.5) helped W&L achieve a team average of 40.2%, as compared the 41.9% for the opposition. From the foul line, Bauer (71.6), Kline (71.5), Morrison (71.2), and Gil Fitzhugh (seven of eight for 87.5), were the leaders. Team free-throw accuracy was 66.0%, compared to 71.1% for the opposition. Spessard led the rebounding corps with 238 for an average of 9.5, while Bauer (8.0), Edwards (5.8), and Morrison (5.6) were also strong under the boards. The team out-rebounded its opponents, 54.2 to 45.0. The Generals were outscored, however, 78.1 to 72.9.

Bauer's 24 points in the second win over Lynchburg was the most productive effort for an individual. The 93 points scored in the first win over Eastern Mennonite was the team's best offensive showing, and the 22-point margin of victory in that game was the Generals' biggest spread. The 51 points allowed Lynchburg in the first meeting was W&L's stingiest night, and conversely, the worst defensive effort was the 119 points allowed Bridgewater in the season's opener. The 34-point defeat to Florida Southern was the most lop-sided loss, and the offensive nadir was 59, scored on four occasions by Washington and Lee.

Morrison stretches high to snare rebound against Randolph-Macon.

Spessard's 20 rebounds against North Carolina Wesleyan was a seasonal high, as was the team's walloping total of 83 in the same game.

That the squad progressed through the course of the season is evidenced by the fact that W&L lost nine of its first twelve encounters, then captured seven of the next eleven. If this improvement is to be carried over to next year, the forward-orientated offense must receive more scoring punch from the guards and center. With Morrison, Bauer, Edwards, Kline, and Carrere returning, Coach Canfield is assured of a veteran lineup, but it is hoped that fruitful recruiting will bolster the Generals' chances even more.

Captains Jamie Andrew and Kemble White flank Coach Miller.

Hit hard by graduation and injuries, the 1966 wrestling squad worked hard to fashion a creditable 4-5 record. Coach Dick Miller had six men without varsity experience filling first team positions. The matmen opened the schedule with a fourth-place finish in the Towson State Christmas Tournament, and the year was highlighted by wins over West Virginia, William and Mary, RPI, with Loyola. A tough loss to UVa in the season's finale gave the Generals their first losing record in seven years.

Leading the youthful grapplers were co-captains Jamie Andrew (6-2-1) and Kemble White (5-2). Rolly Jacobs, Jim Bruton, Don Patterson, Holmes Raker, and freshmen Charlie Slaughter, Jay Clarke, and Bobby Munson usually comprised the rest of the varsity lineup. Warren Stewart, injured most of the season, and freshmen Dave Jackson and Clarke Carter, and sophomore Bobby Payne performed capably when called upon to handle varsity chores.

Stewart compiled the best winning percentage with a 3-0 record, while Andrew paced the team in victories with six and tied Bruton, White, and Slaughter for the most pins with two. Individually, the Generals won 43 matches, lost 37, and drew 2, gaining 159 teampoints against 135 for the opposition.

Stewart and Patterson will serve as next year's co-captains, leading a team with ten experienced hands and promise of a return to winning seasons.

Narrow Defeats Mar Lacrosse Record

Sprinting Bob Ostroff leads the attack downfield.

One-sided victories and heart-breaking, last-second defeats—these were the trademarks of a strong General lacrosse squad which finished the 1965 season with a deceptive 4-8 record.

Coach Swan's stickmen could have been understandably frustrated by the first three games. Strong squads from Swarthmore and Ohio State won the first two contests—in overtime—while W&L lost the third to New Hampshire by a 9-8 margin.

Rebounding strongly, the Generals showed they could win by routing Hartwick and Duke. Two of their best efforts were defeats to excellent teams from North Carolina and Virginia in tight, hotly-contested encounters. Other losses were to Hofstra, Washington, and Loyola (by one goal), while W&L also conquered Towson and Catonsville.

The statistics make the Generals' efforts appear more successful than the won-lost record alone would indicate. Washington and Lee took more shots than their opponents (472-392), made more goals than their opponents (114-103), captured more ground balls (803-497), and controlled more face-offs (121-104). In extra-man situations, however, W&L was hurt, being able to capitalize on only 22% of their opportunities, while their opponents scored on 44% of the times that the Generals were under-manned.

Individual standouts were several for Washington and Lee. Tri-captains Carroll Klingelhofer, Pat Robertson, and Mike Michaels were consistent leaders. Attackman Klingelhofer and midfielder Robertson were named honorable mention All-Americans, and both participated in the Senior North-South All Star Game. Goalie Butch West started the season with little experience but turned in an excellent performance, contributing 143 saves.

The scoring leader was Klingelhofer with 25 goals, followed by Michaels (18), freshman Tom Pittman (16), and Duncan LaMonte (11). Klingelhofer also led in assists with 26. Robertson retrieved an amazing 107 ground balls, with Pittman contributing 74.

Lance Bendann, another All-American mention, led the sophomore-studded defense. He and midfielder Billy Andrews will serve as co-captains for the coming season, which should be a bright one, considering the whole defense and a host of fine midfielders will return.

Coach Cy Twombly's golf team maintained a winning tradition as the young Generals finished the 1965 season in the black with a 3-2-1 record.

Victories were won over Bridgewater, Old Dominion, and Roanoke College, while Washington and Lee fell prey to Virginia and Lynchburg and tied Hampden-Sydney. The Generals capped the season by finishing third in the CAC tournament at Sewanee.

Captain Ed Crosland, playing in the number one position, placed second in medal play in the tourney with a two-round score of 144. The consistent play of Roger Sennott, Dick Drew, Jim Fulwider, and Jeff Skarda was a major factor in the team's tournament and seasonal success.

With these five returning, Crosland and Sennott as co-captains, Coach Twombly can anticipate another winning season.

W & L Netmen Successful

Webb powers an overhead smash.

Compiling a 5-1 dual meet record and an overall record of 5-4, the 1965 Washington and Lee tennis team lost only to the University of Virginia in regular season play. The Generals lost to Georgetown, George Washington and Notre Dame in the Cherry Blossom Tournament. Led by co-captains Jim DeYoung and Randy Jones and coached by Verne Canfield, the team had four shutouts in its five victories. The netmen defeated Bridgewater, Lynchburg College, Hampden-Sydney and Old Dominion by 9-0 scores. In the College Athletic Conference Tournament, the Generals finished a strong third out of five teams.

Howard Busse, DeYoung, Phil Thompson, Jones, Lindsay Short and Forrest Dickinson were the General starters in the singles matches, with Busse and Thompson winning five out of nine matches. Jones and Dickinson won four apiece. In the doubles, Dickinson, Short, Webb, Jones and DeYoung were the standouts with Dickinson winning seven of eight matches.

The 1966 team, led by captain Dickinson, will depend upon standout freshmen for depth. Dickinson, Thompson and Charlie Lee are the only returning lettermen.

Generals Take

A second-place finish in the CAC tournament redeemed an otherwise disappointing campaign as the 1965 W&L baseball team finished with a 3-9 record.

After dropping their first six games, the Generals were able to regroup their forces behind pitcher Pete Heumann. The sophomore right-hander threw an eleven-inning no-hitter against a strong RPI squad, and the Generals had their first victory, 2-1.

Continually plagued by ineffective hitting, W&L lost two more encounters before ending the regular season with a 7-6 win over Lynchburg. The team then traveled to the CAC tournament where Heumann's pitching and an Ashley Allen homerun sparked them to a convincing 13-3 con-

Thinclads Finish Strong

Improving steadily from start to finish, a young General track squad finished the 1965 season with a successful 5-2 record in dual meets and an admirable showing in post-season competition.

Directed by Coach Norm Lord and led by co-captains Chris Kell and Andy Kilpatrick, the thinclads absorbed defeats at the hands of University of Richmond and Old Dominion, then swept past Hampden-Sydney, High Point, Roanoke, Lynchburg, and Elon in succession. Washington & Lee ended the year by finishing fifth in the Davidson Relays, fourth in the CAC meet, and a strong seventh—out of fifteen entries—in the state meet.

Chris Kell, sprinter and co-captain, was awarded the Forest Fletcher Trophy for the outstanding track and field athlete, while freshman Luke Meadows earned the Memorial Trophy for the most improved athlete. Consistently outstanding in the field events were pole vaulter John Graham and shotputter Dan Manson, plus Ted Larsen and Rick Mynttinen in the discus and javelin respectively.

Kilpatrick in the mile and Kell, Bob Bigham, Rob Orr, and Spencer Sullivan in the sprints were the top runners. Lee Johnson, a two-miler, and Jim Thompson, a 440-880 runner, also turned in excellent performances and were named co-captains for the 1966 team.

The 440 relay team of Kell, Bigham, Orr, and Sullivan set a new school record of 43.6 at the CAC meet. Of these four, only Kell was a senior. With nearly the entire team returning, the outlook for next spring is extremely promising, and Coach Lord will be expecting improved performances from all the returnees.

I-M Competition Keen

1965-1966 was another exciting year in W. & L. intramural athletics. The fall segment began with the Phi Delts getting a jump on everyone by capturing both the tennis and the touch football championships, edging out the Sigma Nus and the Kappa Sigmas, respectfully. PiKA gained valuable points by taking the team title in the Turkey Trot, while Sigma Chi's Greg Parke copped individual honors. In golf, the SPE's emerged victorious, as the Phi Delts went down to defeat in a close playoff.

Winter saw a championship title go to four different houses. Delta Tau Delta grabbed the swimming crown by nosing out the runner-up SAE. In handball it was the KA's taking the finals from the Phi Eps. Basketball produced a major upset as the SAEs dropped their first game after four eight straight victories and the Kappa Sigs went on to win the championship. The Phi Kaps once again took the team wrestling honors.

With the intramural year not quite complete, many houses are in contension for the over-all championship, and an exciting spring is anticipated.

fraternities at W&L

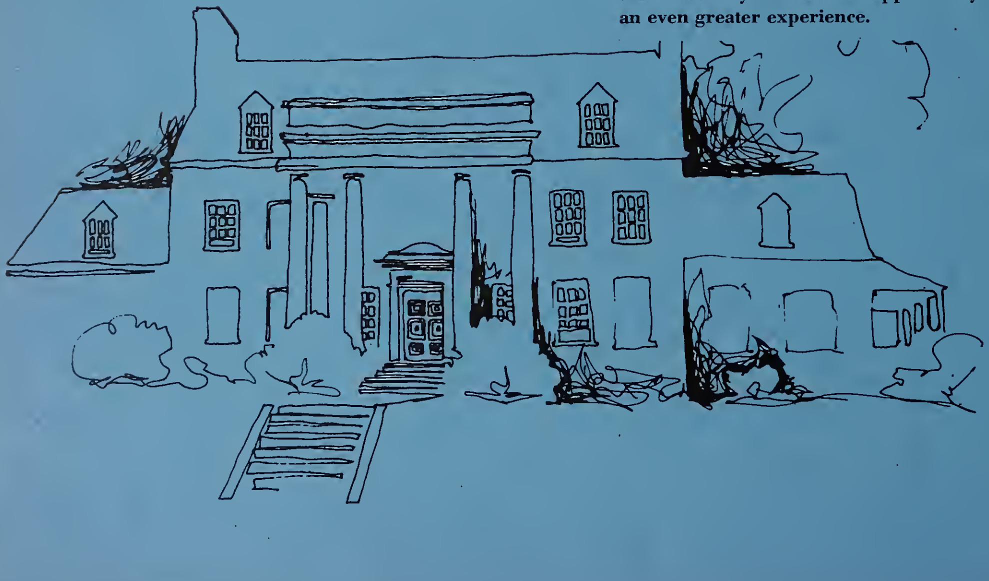
Washington and Lee is a fraternity school, perhaps more so than any other school. Eighteen houses number almost eighty percent of the student body as their members, each house contributing something of its own to the social, athletic, and even intellectual atmosphere of the campus. However, each fraternity means something different to the individual member. To some, the fraternity provides a group identity which offers security and safety, while to others it offers an incentive, a motivation to improve, an outlet for leadership, but to all it offers brotherhood. The road trips, flic teams, poker games, combo parties, and late-night bull sessions all evidence a common bond which mean much now and perhaps more later. While the pursuit of knowledge is our major objective here, the fraternity offers the opportunity for perhaps an even greater experience.



IFC Evaluates Fraternity System

Kneeling: Manning, Reading Timmerman, Wade, Reynolds, Bendann, Baremore, Yancy. Standing: Fulwider, Roediger, Miles, Mathews, Haskell, Cannon, Chambers, Henry, Lawrence, Zahra, Patterson, Crosby, Lee, Stone, Eadie, Sumner, Katona, Young, Van Dine.

The purpose of the Interfraternity Council is to promote the general interests of the eighteen fraternities and to cooperate with the administration and faculty of the University in order that the IFC may make some contribution towards the realization of the various goals of the University.

To this end, the IFC has engaged in several major and many minor projects in addition to its day-to-date operations. Of major significance has been the continuation of the intellectual symposium, Contact, and its further establishment in the academic life of W&L. Only two years old, the program has matured a great deal and looks forward to a very successful and rewarding future.

The IFC has also undertaken a major study of the fraternity system, in keeping with the University's Self-Study program. It is the intent of the IFC to establish the long-term objectives and needs of the fraternities and to provide a program which will enable them to meet the challenges of the future.

A third major project has been an investigation of the financial practices of the fraternities, followed by a proposed uniform system under the supervision of local Certified Public Accountants.

Minor projects include further attempts to establish a favorable relationship with the townspeople through student participation in town projects and by prohibiting the young people of the town from attending fraternity parties. Attempts have been made to end discrimination among fraternities and the rush system has been thoroughly analyzed. The social regulations have been brought up to date after having grown stale over a ten-year period.

The IFC has realized that fraternities must fill a distinct need of the student, and that the more sophisticated student must be met with a more sophisticated fraternity. The IFC has taken definite steps in this direction and has attempted to lay the groundwork for future IFC's to carry on in this area.

"The ice-box in the back yard, again"

Homecoming Representative, Penny Coughlan; President, Rick Richmond.

The Beta House had made it through another fine year, barely. Richard Nash served on the Executive Committee and Pete Kintz was chairman of the Student Control Committee and tapped ODK. Kintz and Sam Frazier were elected to "Who's Who in American Colleges." Freshman Lee Halford was elected to Phi Eta Sigma. In sports Tim Henry set an all-time scoring record for W&L as Co-Captain of the soccer team and made the All-State team for the fourth consecutie year. Bob Larus did well as goalie and Dick Wilson played halfback. Tom Day, Chuck and Dave Long played football and Noel Clinard was the leading diver for the swimmers. Duncan Lamonte played lacrosse.

The largest Beta Sports representation was on the "Ponce" team, while the "Texas Tavern" team ran a close second. Who can forget Buck on the second floor . . . "And Sproatty passed . . ."

Homecoming Representative, Debbie Robinson; President, Robin Dyer.

Delta Upsilon brothers take part in nearly every campus activity. Dick Battin was a dark horse candidate for Freshman E. C. representative. Frank Jones wrote for Ariel, Ray Zeltner the R-t-P, Brad Rochester, Ken Caro, and Pete Heumann for the Southern Collegian. The Greaser washed dishes, Chris Crosman narrowly escaped a paternity suit, and Bill Kimmel was a standout varsity swimmer.

Other campus activities saw Caro on the Publications Board, Ron Williams, Jeff Orth, and John Lawrence on the track team, Zeltner on the wrestling team, Jeff Skarda on the golf team, and "No-Hit" Heumann as a star on the W&L diamond. "Loudmouth" Woodward was a top debater, "Lover" McLackey was a Harrisonburg pig-breeder, Rusty Field considered going out for soccer but went to Richmond instead, Ed Wood was in the Liberty Hall Society and Thirteen Club, and Gary Hotz was an unsung soloist for the Glee Club. "Boss" Funkhouser was Secretary for the Young Republicans. John Freeman raised his son, while Dick Robinson raised hell.

Phil Manor again was a R. E. Lee Schloar with a research grant in Chemistry, as well as director of the Language Lab. Ward Dorer aided Contact, and Erroll Clarke and Clark Crigler participated in Troubs between trips to Briar.

Socially, DU enjoyed another fine year, as the Fabulous Five, Outhwaite Kimber, and the Fabulous Retreads managed to drown out the Green Hornet's chamber music. And Sproatty passed.

"Avoiding academic and social probation . . ."

Homecoming Representative, Adelie Birney; Escort, Spencer Atwater.

With auspicious beginnings, Alpha Chapter celebrated the finish of its one hundreth year with a dazzling rush week. With the regrouping of its forces, the house embarked on a plan of rejuvenation, KARP, avoiding such activities as academic and social probation.

In campus activities the spirit of the new year was led by seniors Geoffrey Butler, Mike Hash, and Jim Crothers. As president of the house, Geoff represented KA as Senior Justice of the I.F.C. Mike Hash, editor of the Ring-Tum Phi, added much to the University as senior Executive Committee representative. Aiding Mike as managing editor of the school paper, Jim Crothers also served as President of the Dance Board and Southern Collegian editor.

Athletically KA can boast many leaders. Larry Craig, Jay Bowersox, and Jim Baria were among the varsity footballers with Captain Jeff Novinger. Other noteworthy jocks were Bowersox, in his role as Lacrosse ace, Joe Huston, in swimming, and Jim Crothers of baseball fame.

Rounding out participation in University activities were Emory Waters and Jim Price on the Dance Board Advisory Council, Barry Vaught on the Assimilation Committee, and Dean's List students Alldredge, Atwater, Murphy, Simmons, and Novinger.

"Defenestration at orgy . . ."

Homecoming Representative, Susie Lazzari; Escort, Jim Darragh.

The Kappa Sigs of '65-'66 redecorated the first and third floors during pre-rush. and added nine new members. They dropped the championship of intramural football in a play-off game (0-0?) . . . but the loss was redeemed with the basketball trophy. Our traditional Black and Whites celebration had a new twist, formals and faculty, at which time the PhD's and brothers of Mu mixed drinks and conversation.

On campus the KS's had standouts such as Chuck Walker, President of ODK, Phil Claxton, Co-chairman of Contact, and Head Newman, managing editor of the Ring-tum Phi.

Memories on the light side include Ogs' return from U.Va. (i.e. Vienna)—very cosmopolitan. Torras persists at Hollins. McLeod expatriated. Riviera fiddles while clutch burns. Atwater's room photographed by Gavin for Mademoiselle. Big Ingles kicks sand in Petey's 97 lb. face at beach. Froggy croaks. Montgomery defenestrated at orgy. Poore narrowly escapes winning season. Ethel and Mary Ellen deliver; both litters favor Fred. Anderson flashes . . . Manalan dissects JOJO—finds six transistors. Magdalen inflicts ptomaine, aided by ethnics. Pecuniary extravaganza—Newman buys Double-Bubble. Thistle flirts with V.D. (Vickie Davis). Baily pops carbunclee, chin disappears. Lacy's beak lends authenticity to Toga party. Stallworth great for parties (but would you want him to marry your sister?). Gypsy Rose Levi "Dancing in the Streets." Alloy discovered in Brown's tongue. Nuptials read between profs and Harris. Marnie chokes on "bumper-lips"—F. L. survives. Et tu Grute???

"Where is "Hawkshaw" Harris?"

Homecoming Representative, Susan Sisler; President, Mike Lawrence.

The year 1965-66 has been very successful for the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity as a whole and for many of its individual members. Rush Chairman Dick Walters led an enthusiastic assault on the freshman dormitory that resulted in one of the most successful rush weeks in recent decades. Nineteen men were pledged, including four standouts on the freshman football team, three solid freshman basketball performers, and two varsity swimming team members who threaten to smash many records during their stay at Washington and Lee. Of even greater importance is the fact that fifteen pledges made sufficient academic achievements to be initiated.

As fall intramural activities got underway, the Phis sobered up sufficiently, and discovered that they possessed latent athletic ability to win championships in tennis and football and finish second in golf. Varsity football was graced with the services of "Rocket" Bradbury and "Hunter" Barclay. Barclay proved to be a valuable asset in that he was voted to the Washington University all-opponent team and the All-CAC team. As far as individual performances are concerned, Jack Baber served as CALYX editor. President of SSS, and was voted to Who's Who. Birnie Harper served as President of SWMSFC and associate CALYX editor and the heavy snowfall of Fancy Dress was surpassed only by the Bill Deyo snowfall that immediately followed and marooned Susan Emory in Lexington for close to two weeks.

One question remains to be answered, however; where is "Hawkshaw" Harris?

"The Rock was buried . . ."

Homecoming Representative, Carolyn Bolton; President, Steve Case.

This, Delta's forty-fifth year, was a year of progress and accomplishment in many areas. The chapter pledged twenty-five freshmen and added one member each to the Sophomore and Junior classes in the Fall. Work was begun almost immediately on the expansion of the house under the leadership of Chris Miller. There were accomplishments in many other areas too: intramurals, academics, and extracurricular activities. Social Chairman Rich Caplan did an outstanding job: Billy Cannon was honored in Who's Who; Steve Case and Ken Bernhardt were also very prominent in campus activities.

The Rock was buried this year, but its subsequent resurrection and the appropriate retaliation against "that other house" left us on top. New members included jocks, brains, and the nucleus of a house combo: Chinky King became House Sweetheart: and Mrs. "D" continued to prove a valuable and welcome part of the house.

In short, Phi Ep continued in the path which earned us the Most Improved Chapter Award at the 1965 national convention.

We will not forget—a dozen eggs, Please Please, The Fine, the Coke machine, John Swihart and the Charter, "Quick Pin" Katona, Rodney's "Good taste." Corbet's 8:25, Andersonville, Kappa ep, Sancho and the alligator, The Phantom, the God Squad Kennyburgers, the yellow canary cage, the Great Books, the Bobsey twins, Fink's red pants, the amendment, Oberlin, and arf arf.

Homecoming Representative, Adaline Allen; President, Bob Lee.

Phi Psis are active in all phases of campus life. Bob Lee, currently president of Phi Psi, is a senior executive committee representative, while Jim Redenbaugh is President of the Senior Class and Charlie Tomb, vice-president of the sophomore class. Jim is also business manager of the Ring-tum Phi, while Ward Briggs, Jim Chance, and Bob Lee serve as columnists for the Tuesday edition. Lee is also vice-president of the Student Service Society, while Bob Frost, Briggs, Tomb, and Tom Robertson help to comprise the committee's membership. The Liberty Hall Society lists Briggs, Robertson, and Lee as members. Bob is also a member of the Student War Memorial Scholarship Fund Committee, while Steve Lunde is social chairman of the I.F.C.

Athletically, Phi Psis are active with Mike Goode, Andy Bloom, and Tomb as members of varsity football team. Brothers Brad Shinkle, Briggs, and Bob Smith helped to guide the soccer team to a successful season. Frost, Doug Morrison and "Hooker" Holtan will lend their considerable talents to the lacrosse team this spring, while Ted Larson, Shinkle and Goode help to bolster a strong track team, and eight Phi Psi freshmen helped to lead the freshman football team to its most successful season in several years.

A full social calendar was highlighted by the fall house parties, a traditional Christmas Party and the Spring Hawaiian party. Tom Robertson deserves much credit for the successful social year.

"Queen Mary still afloat . . ."

Homecoming Representative, Karen Hagener; President, John Hensley.

The year 1965-66 proved to be another successful year for the Phi Kaps. George Bokinsky captained the swimming team and Bart Taylor was elected to succeed him next year. Forrest Dickinson was captain of the tennis team while two other Phi Kaps backed him up. A brother participated in every intercollegiate sport with over half of the fraternity earning letters. Charlie Slaughter started on the varsity wrestling team and Jim Cooper was the number two pitcher on the baseball team. Joe Priddy started at tackle on the football team and sophomore Jody Kline made the starting five in basketball. In intramural sports. Alan Wade was given the Peter Snell endurance award posthumously.

Phi Kaps placed seven boys in SSS and four in SWMSFC. Tom Cox served as vice-president of the Dance Board. Wade was vice-president of the Junior Class, while Jay Thiemeyer was elected V.P. of the Freshman Class. George Bokinsky and McNeace were dorm counselors. Nine brothers earned scholarships, and four were Honor Roll students. Gary Bokinsky served as vice-president of SWMSFC and secretary of AED.

Socially, the Phi Kaps had another big year. Morse, Gordy and Hensley celebrated Father's Day. Beard got two—'s, three—'s, and a partridge in a pear tree. Clarabell lost horns. The Boar went out in a ball of fire. The crescent went straight. Patsy survived the Fuller automatic rule. "Blessed are the cocky, for they shall inherit the earth"—Baugher. T loves meh-meh. "The joys of college life . . ."

Homecoming Representative, Marilyn Myers; President, Jody Luck.

From the hallowed red walls came the noble cry of "booze," and again the Pi Kapp's launched the academic year. Rush Week came and went; when the smoke cleared and the lounge had drained—hidden among the cigarette butts and empty cans were nineteen stalwart pledges. These hardy young seekers of truth and thrills were early initiated into the joys of college life. The social climax was reached at Openings. The "Seduzer" rolled out the welcome mat and acted as ringmaster while his "wahoo" buddies provided the lodge with a bang-up show, then destroyed the evidence. Turner's provided the boys with a little relief by running a 1¢ sale on penicillin.

Buckey of the Ohio Stud Team crowned himself Homecoming King. Alas, he couldn't find a crown or a court but he did have the queen, Miss Marilyn Myers.

Meanwhile, a select group of dedicated men were devoting their time and cigarette butts to smoke filled rooms—the politicos. The Turkey, shrewd old bird of campus politics heads the list as the Junior Justice, defender of the peace, champion of right, and chairman of the cattle cars. Turk's wing tips are followed by the "Barls," who slid into immortality when at the first class meetings his office as sophomore historian was voted obsolete: later Barls was voted obsolete.

The Pi Kapp's had several things in "66" not the least of which was a great year.

Homecoming Represenattive, Betty Hardaker; President, Chuck Griffin.

The SAE's in 1965-66 have continued to demonstrate leadership and ability in every phase of campus life. This year Jerry Turner, Al Byrne and Kirk Follo held positions on the 11-man Executive Committee. Jerry and Kirk were also selected for membership in ODK. Davey Bird Johnson was President of the Sophomore Class and Tom Kelsey led the Liberty Hall Society. Bill Washburn counted money for the CALYX and Blaine Ewing was business manager for the Ring-tum Phi. Chitwood was chairman of the Library Committee as well as being a dorm counselor. Chuck Griffin. Jody Moore's pawn, was President of the IFC and in Who's Who.

Among the wheat germ set, Stark Sydnor and William Sledge were All-Conference in football and Ed Crosland was captain of the golf team again. Dee Cannon was the freshman football team's biggest asset, while Gambill and Pittman continued to star for the lacrosse team.

Academically, first semester reports showed ten SAE's on Dean's List headed by Bobby Brickhouse's second three-point. Bill Washburn was honored by initiation into Phi Beta Kappa.

Despite handicaps such as Dick Bradford, the SAE's enjoyed another successful social year. Bradford resorted to using Morse's name to get dates at Sem and Buddy Atkins. second leading ground gainer for the Generals, lost ground at Hollins again. Benedict, Hayes, Gonzalez and Morse have ordered their Brooks Brothers' fatigues in anticipation of winning an all-expense paid trip.to a well-known Southeast Asian paradise.

"Bond bows to Batman . . ."

Homecoming Representative, Cherie Reese; President, Neely Young.

A memorable year for the Sigs. Rush week was followed by the First Annual Gross Week, founded by Mollere and Carson . . . Brown totals his wheels but walks out smiling, along with a slightly less amused Evans . . . Cathy's Clown takes it out on his body, and discovers his Mustang is a poor match for the fuzz. Lexington overrun by Hell's Angels—looting and plundering led by Rorr . . . and Hairy Buffalo takes its toll at the Stud Farm.

In the Chi Lodge the Kelse snaps minds, while Reynolds eulogizes Madison and Vandy. The Voodoo Secy Room ruled by Big Kuhula Thorsen . . . Baker makes it legal, while Neely continues periodic withdrawals to Richmond. Straight Arrow returns from The World permanently bent—time has run out, Mac!

Mrs. Smith breaks her leg and spends Fancy Dress in the Roanoke "hospital," while Biehl busts a gut, and Pledge Duncan has near catastrophic run-in with Oklahoma Girls. Pegram is busy developing a taste for rice . . . Bond bows to Batman . . . Flateau finally gets his White Cross and manages to hold it for a week. Baldwin manipulates Williamson and beer cans with equal aplomb. Rufus Thomas flakes twice in a row, but Sweethearts comes through.

And wonder of wonders—the Zeta Sigs rack up a whopping 1.5 GPR, fourth on campus. (Despite spirited efforts by Sophomores).

Sigma Nu's jocks: Redmond, Fols, Ditka, Reading, Snides, Unitas, Smith, and Boots . . . Weekend blow-outs at "Snugs, Jugs, and Huey" apartment . . . Kinney dumps Ursula Andress for Bear Bryant!! . . . Spirits high at annual Initiation Banquet, as champagne corks pop . . . Nightly "Quid Team": Nus feast upon fine food, cheered by Helen's hospitality. "A little pin-n-n ball there" . . . "Oh, Rob! I'm engaged, but we can still date!" . . . Flaming Phis not coo-l enough . . . Annual snowball battle ends in tie . . . Fat Ricky's Sem hotline flames out . . . Gregory receives Royal Order of the Bag . . . Arachnoid web ensnares "Freddie the Fletch" . . . Putt-Putt and Dunn accepted to the "Mirror and Bod' Squad" . . . "Stud table" replaced by soup bowl . . . Denny panics . . . Bonnie's baby finally gets hooked . . . Mysterious SWAK letters received by Askew . . . Rutid, Surf, Richie, and Bogie head after-supper Bridge Team . . . Charlie Goren shudders . . . Don't give up on us yet, Dean Atwood; we promise to study harder next semester! . . . Roger Miller and Fast Eddie: "King of the Road" . . . "The Fabulous Coasters."

"Success despite the raid . . ."

Homecoming Representative, Sandy Storm; President, Andy Smith.

Virginia Epsilon Chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon in its 60th year at W&L, is one of 165 chapters of the national fraternity which was born in 1901, in Richmond, Virginia. SPE entered rush week ranking second in both scholarship and intramurals; this record was rewarded with twenty-one outstanding pledges.

During the year, SPE leadership showed up in many activities. Steve Saunders is head of the Interim Mock Convention Committee, member of the Assimilation Committee, and News Editor of the Ring-Tum Phi. Ren Manning and Steve McElhaney held prominent positions on CONTACT as Publicity Chairman and Treasurer respectively. Bill Hartman served on the Cold Check Committee, while Bob Stack was on the Library Committee.

Athletically, SPE's were represented in Virtually all intercollegiate sports with Jim Thompson as co-captain of the track team. Gill Fitzhugh was one of only four Freshmen to make the varsity basketball team, while Larry Boetsch and Mike Bramley were the co-captains of the Freshman squad.

SPE enjoyed an unprecedented year in social activities. Dionne Warwick, The Majors, and Bertha Tillman helped make the parties a success. Miller and Fatzinger drank as usual, Hatfield and Mynttinen detoured from Hollins, while Gastrock, Blake, and Lowe kept up town relations. The pledge program was a success despite the raid and the marriage of the pledge trainer.

The Brothers feel a deep gratitude to our housemother, Mrs. Brett, who helped make our year successful.

"The number one song in 1926 . . ."

Homecoming Representative, Susie Bain; President, Harry Dennery.

The AE Chapter of ZBT Fraternity, whose Zeta, Beta, and Tau chapters are now defunct, had a year filled with grins and groans.

Harry "I went to college to see the World" Dennery held the reins. Veep ADA names captain of ZBT wrestling team (4 pins this year.) President of Student Body "F. T." Mindel tried to get 8:25's required for all seniors. Charlie the "B" takes up a column to put off studying some more. Sweetzer voted "Most likely to replace Jerry West." Cob misses Remy, but he's still Mr. I-M All-Star. Blummie's commuter student. Mr. Grandice turns lover. Slinger wins game of Trivia by telling Hoss Kramer the No. 1 song in 1926. R. Loophymer is "up" with his "Room at the Top." Harris plans to wed with Zero as best man (unless the "Cats" play that night). General re-unites with his honey in Oklahoma. Golies cycles all over. Fleischer poetizes, philosophizes, and humorizes his way to nothingness.

Mark merrily marries Miami madel. Stone tastes married life. Stroff plays the "Johnny U" role. Porky in and out of love. Baker returns to play a mute slave (that's lucky). Freedom calls Selma march the turning point in world history. "Ice Cream" Cohen called Tarzan. Pook escapes the "flying brown." Ep rolls the presses (he's just waiting). Simple Simon gets English-type "job." Bod's pipe snows Ed. Bear finally makes 1-pentanol 2-phenol. Wider misses early "mass."

Sophs all nicknamed . . . 16 solid pledges . . . We love you Mom Fletcher.

Washington and Lee is an institution which specializes in undergraduate education. The entire faculty teaches undergraduate courses, and it is not unusual for a freshman to be enrolled in a course taught by a department head. Thus the student is able to benefit fully from a faculty which has one of the highest percentages of Ph.D.'s among American universities.

An equally important advantage of Washington and Lee education is the high ratio of faculty to students. This provides the student with close relationships with his professors, and is furthered by the unique Robert E. Lee research grants, available in all fields.

Although steeped in tradition, the University realizes that changes must be made. The Self-Study program, soon to be completed, has provided a valuable analysis of the academic program and suggested many possible improvements, some of which have already been made.

The Washington and Lee graduate has received not only an excellent liberal arts education, but more importantly, he has been imbued with a respect for knowledge so essential in this world today.

TO THE CLASS OF 1966:

Your generation has been said to be seeking a purpose, a goal. We think you have made here a good beginning in your search. You have met the high demands established for your formal education by Washington and Lee and you have learned of the importance of self-discipline and respect for your fellow men. Now yours is the responsibility for leadership in society beyond the reaches of this university community.

Never was there a time when the liberally educated man was more urgently needed than now; never was there a time when the strength and imagination of youth were more vital to the future of the country and to the world; never was there a time when the inquiring mind and the patient critic were so urgently required; and never was there a time when the attributes of the gentleman were more seriously questioned.

The challenges to you are great, but we have deep faith in your ability and in your will to bring a better life to this troubled world.

Our best hopes and good wishes and affection go with you.

Phi Alpha Delta Produces Leaders

Successful and industrious law students were not a by-line for the Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity this year. The Staples Chapter has produced leaders in W&L's Law School since 1912. This year was no exception.

PAD placed several members on the Law Review, including Editor-in-Chief, Duke Bumgardner. And associate editors, Henry Angel and Emmitt Yeary. Sam Coleman was elected as president of the Student Bar Association first semester. In addition, three of the four members of this year's Moot Court team and four of the six counsels of the Mock Trial competition are brothers of Phi Alpha Delta.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The preparation of a yearbook requires the diligent efforts and abilities of many individuals. The Editor would like to make especial acknowledgement of the very able and untiring assistence of the following people. John T. Benson III, R. Dan Eadie, Thorne Borthwick, Frank A. Parsons, and John E. Hughes, without whom this book would not be possible. Thanks, also are extended to Mr. Robert Stewart whose musical efforts helped to reduce the tedium of many a long afternoon.

As a yearbook editor, wouldn't you like—

√ complete creative art assistance in planning and designing your book

√ actual known production performances (by records) of substantially less than 10 weeks, as required by most yearbook manufacturers. No contract claims, either, of an additional 4 days on delivery for each 1 day any deadline is missed

√ an association with a firm who has specialized in designing yearbooks perhaps longer than any other company

√ our insistence of your reading and checking page proofs to avoid (or at least minimize) possible glaring errors in the completed edition

√ an all out effort to please you in design, quality, and service at competitive prices

What more could you ask?

Pomon-O-Lok Ceramic pipe, like a college education, is considered a "must" for high quality jobs. Sanitary engineers are fully aware of the proven dependability of Pomon-O-Lok Ceramic pipe. The Pomon-O-Lok mechanical joint has solved infiltration and root troubles and is first choice for sewer projects. For quality and dependability, specify Pomon-O-Lok for your next installation.

In 1882 Edison had a great idea.

And it wasn't the electric light.

The whole idea of investor-ownership of electric light and power companies began when Thomas A. Edison and a group of investors financed his first power plant more than 80 years ago.

Since then, investor-owned companies like ours have become an integral part of America's Free Enterprise system. That explains why today we have at our fingertips more electric power than any other country in the world.

And it's this same Free Enterprise system that puts at your fingertips greater opportunity, greater expectation for success than can be hoped for by any other young people in the world.
